

Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to force their stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary is wrong. Sinclair uses the public airwaves free of charge, and is obligated by law to serve the public interest. Airing a clearly one-sided program does not serve the public, it serves in this case, the Republican party.

Sinclair's actions show why we need to strengthen media ownership rules, not weaken them. They show why the license renewal process needs to involve more than a returned postcard. Thank you.
